

Integrated Graduate Program in Physical and Engineering Biology (PEB)

Track your progress toward earning your PEB certificate using this worksheet.

PEB Coursework

Course	Semester Completed
☐ Integrated Workshop (MB&B/MCDB 5910; ENAS/PHYS 5710)
☐ Methods & Logic in Interdisciplinary Research (ENAS/MB&B/MCDB/PHYS 5170)
☐ Biological Physics or equivalent (MB&B/CB&B/PHYS 5230; ENAS 5410)
☐ Modeling Biological Systems II or equivalent (MB&B/CB&B/ENAS/INP/MCDB/PHYS 5620)
☐ Optional Primer Course: • Boot Camp Biology (MB&B 5200)
☐ Responsible Conduct of Research Refresher (course offered by home department or by PEB in the 4 th year) Department: _____

 You may fulfill this PEB requirement with an equivalent course with permission from PEB leadership

PEB Check-In: Meet with PEB leadership in years 1 and 2 to check in on progress toward fulfilling all PEB requirements.

Check-in meeting dates:

Successful admission to candidacy in your home department

The project described in your prospectus should be aligned with PEB if you receive funding from PEB (including travel funding)

Date Completed:

Prospectus title:

Research Presentation: Present your PEB-related research in May of your second year during PEB Discussion Group 2nd Year Flash Talks.

Date Completed:

Presentation title:

Outreach: Participate in at least one PEB outreach event.

Outreach Event	Date	Brief description of your role during the event
☐

Professional Development: Attend at least 2 of the following professional development opportunities:

- Present your PEB-related research during PEB discussion group
- Present your PEB-related research at a non-Yale conference or meeting
- Attend a PEB-hosted professional development event
- Help organize a PEB outreach event or PEB Discussion Group
- Invite and host an external seminar speaker at Yale to present on PEB-related research during the PEB Distinguished Seminar Series
- Attend an external workshop on a PEB-related topic
- Meet with Yale alumni working in a PEB-related field that is of interest to you to learn about their career path
- Have a career advising appointment with the Yale Office of Career Strategy (OCS)

Professional Development Opportunity	Date(s) Completed	Brief Description
☐
☐		